Comments: This is an area of natural beauty and conservation . local amenity's are already available for food and drinks along with local public toilets . Parking is already available on local roads for kite surfers and swimmers.
This site is offering everything but the kitchen sink ,food , drinks , Shetland ponies, sandpits ,camping , shipping containers, showers , baby changing , bill board for advertising 5meters x 2.5 meters ,flag poles .Did someone forget to offer two juggling chimps on the entrance .

Seriously this development proposal will totally ruin the look of this lovely area ,it will bring with it extra rubbish and quite possibly unsocial behavior Sometimes things should be left for families to enjoy the natural beauty and for the area not to be over developed .

Kind regards
