Comments:
I think it is a disgrace that this application has been held up, thus incurring horrendous costs for this type of organisation, which finds funding hard enough at the best of times. This Hospice is badly needed (unfortunately) and to be put on hold for such nefarious reasons is beyond the pale. They have complied and adapted right the way down the line and now at almost the last hurdle, the council have stopped them in their tracks for what would appear to be for the sake of a few animals. Why oh why do animals now rate more importantly than sick humans. Have you ever been to the Hospice?

or indeed the Chestnut Tree House CHildrens' Hospice? Probably not - I hope you never have the need of their services - perhaps you would change your minds. The work they do is invaluable and they are a lifeline to many families. I urge you to reconsider your decision and give them the go ahead on July 9th, thereby saving a waste of even more money and more importantly heartache! Thank you.
