Comments

When the planning of Ropetackle was in progress this was an issue brought up with Mr. Westaway, who was the Project Manager for Berkley Homes at that time, about windows on the eastside of Weavers Court due to the close proximity with our property, approx 21 meters from the back wall of our house. We stated at the time that we would be totaly overlooked as windows would be on a level with our bedroom window which would mean you could see right into not only our bedroom but also rooms downstairs, which Mr. Westaway agreed with and took the windows off the plan and assured us no windows would be on that side of the building. We would have no privicy when in our garden as the east wall where planning has been applied for totally overlooks the whole garden. The residents of Weavers Court moved into the flat knowing there was no window on the east side, so on the grounds of overlooking and previous decisions by the constructors we would object to the window.
