Hi Eve

Yes, it is one of mine and I am assuming he has started trading. I did an inspection and registered him as a tattooist at the end of November, his wife also does body piercing there too. I do not have any comments to make with regard to the planning application, but have copied Nadeem and David in, in case they have any.

Many thanks
Amanda

Hi Amanda

I don't know if this is one of yours, if not please could you direct it to the right person.

I have an application to change the use of the above property to a tattoo studio. They have already put the shop front in, so I am assuming that if they have not started trading as a tattoo studio yet, it will not be long. However, in order to make a decision we need some input from Environmental Health please. The application will be expiring in two weeks time, so if I could have a response before the end of this week please, it would be good.

Thanks very much.

Eve
