Comments: Dear Sirs,

You have written to ask me to comment on this application to vary conditions of a previously approved application.

This house was built a just a few months ago on the understanding that the windows overlooking the neighbouring properties would be obscured glass and at the time of building, the owner said he wasn't worried as he'd just change them back to clear glass after the house was built.

If clear glass and the other restrictions were acceptable, why were the restrictions made?

Nothing has changed in the last few months, so why should the planning restrictions be changed?

Please accept this as my objection to this latest application to vary the original planning application.

Regards,

Adrian Burgess.
