Notes

1 Under the Town and Country Planning (Control of Advertisement) Regulations 1992 to 1994 you need consent to display advertisements. Please refer to the current Regulations for details or ask a Planning Officer

2 Planning Officers can normally give you help and advice if you show them what you want to do before you hand in your application. Please follow the advice in this document before you make your application. If what you want to do does not meet the standards set out in the guide, please write to us for advice.

3 Hoarding - Usually a large sign containing poster panels which can be placed at the entrance to or sides of building sites or at important sites on the roadside.

Fascia sign - A sign attached to a building, for example, above a shopfront.

Box sign - A type of sign which projects from the surface it is mounted on, for example, at the front of a building.

Flag - Usually a sign in fabric or plastic in the shape of a flag attached to a single flagpole.

Pole - A sign attached to a pole or curved to form a pole, for example, on the forecourt of a garage.

4 We normally give consent for five years, but we may give consent for a longer or shorter period. If you need consent for a specific period of more or less than five years, please tell us in your answer to question 7.

5 You must have consent from the owner of the land or anyone else with the right to give consent before you put up the advertisements. It is your responsibility to get this consent.
