Comments: I live in Church Street and have for 38 years. Although this proposal does not directly impact on my property, I object on the basis of the gradual degradation of Chuch Street over the years and this is yet another ghastly impactful project opposite my house and within sight and sound of my adjacent neighbours. The monstrous steel supports are a an aesthetic disgrace. The plant as a whole is wholly unsympathetic to the surrounds of our local homes. As referred to above, the deterioration of the street, being a conservation area of historic interest and history, there has been commercial growth disproportionate to the size and appearance of our street. This proposal formally addressed as a High Street property, is misleading and distorting of the fact that the impact of such commercial intrusion is actually on Church Street. Applying retrospectively is low behaviour, intended to hoodwink objectors into settling for what is already in place without permission.

Kind regards
