Dear Sir

in reference to planning applicatio Single Storey Side extension.
Conversion of garage to habitable room.
it will create light restriction + tunnel effect to my property it would be faced with a long blank wall.
I've lived here for over thirty years and find it an intrusion on my outlook. digging out footings next to driveway will cause serious undermining. in view of that is am against it maybe a scaled down version would be exeptable
