

Interested party 8

Comments

I walk my dog along the seafront in Goring and do not think the proposed new build in the garden of 94 Marine Crescent will have any impact on the homogeneous, established look of the local environment. There has been a very similar recent new build development in the back garden of 132 Marine Crescent, creating a similar chalet bungalow at 47A Alinora Crescent Worthing, similar to the proposed development at 94 Marine Crescent.