This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Good Morning Caroline and Liz,

Thank you for your efforts here, I think on balance this could be supported as reduced in height subject to neighbour input at application stage. I would recommend that you submit a formal planning, householder application which also details and includes all your supporting information and documents.

We will notify neighbours, make a site visit (to the neighbour also) and process.

<https://www.adur-worthing.gov.uk/planning/applications/submit-fees-forms/#submit>

You can submit the planning application via the link to the planning portal above. If you require any assistance with your application please contact my colleague Elaine Rousseau who can assist, elaine.rousseau@adur-worthing.gov.uk

I hope this is helpful and I look forward to receipt of the application in due course.

Yours sincerely,

Hannah Barker

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?
