Comments: I personally think it would be great to see the garden tidied up with a neat fence.
This would give the occupier's privacy and allow them to use their own garden,as opposed to it being a common lazy walkway for hawkers,delivery drivers and other trades people who currently wander across the lawn. It would also hopefully discourage dog owner's who currently allow their pet's to soil the above garden,which in turn would be a welcome by any young family.
It would also give the property a sense of security,which we all like in present times.
Finally,after being a local resident for many years,it would be very nice to see people taking pride in their properties after this particular house having been rented,and neglected for some time,to look after and maintain the property.
