Stance:	Customer objects to the Planning Application
Reasons for comment:	- Overdevelopment
Comments:	This is yet another instance of commercial businesses nibbling away at uninterrupted, open public use of the surrounding area. No one is constraining the coffee van that has appeared nearby. First it is a parked van, then it is tables and chairs outside, then it is a fence..... Then the sauna/massage businesses that are now present. They, including this proposed development, all present themselves as only serving a public need but, collectively, they make a mess of the frontage. In addition, this development will only further encourage unlicensed, illegal and unchallenged overnight caravanning on the nearby sward and roads.

Kind regards
