Dear Mr Hone,

2 New Cottages, Coombes Road, Lancing: Proposed extension and Alterations

Further to your letter, and our exchange of e-mail messages and telephone calls, I now enclose the revised plans for the above, which can, hopefully go forward for approval,

The amendments are basically all as discussed

One change to the discussions which is, I hope, in line with your requirement re moving the porch away form the "join" of the new extension and existing house it has now been placed to the right to the position of the former dining room window. A small window has been added in the original position to give some daylight to the hall area.

Should you have any further queries please do not hesitate to get in touch

Yours Sincerely
