Reasons for comment: - Privacy Light and Noise

Comments: I do not want there to be continued noise from lorries coming and going at anytime of the day and night, this is a residential area. I need my sleep, I am one of the few residents who live here and work. I feel the way the car park is located next to the adjoining wired fence is permitting those car park users to look straight into my flat and is rather embarrassing. Why should I have to hide in m own residence? It is not just the noise of the delivery/collection lorries but also the noise of the car drivers and those who open and shut the metal gates to the area. I do not like the noise nor do I like the lack of privacy. I own my flat and wish I never bought it!
