Reasons for comment: - Privacy Light and Noise

Comments: We have looked at the plans and can see that the extension on the roof is coming out and squared of is going to take away the light from our kitchen window. We have had someone from the planning office come round before and view a previous extension and agreed that we would lose a lot of light into our kitchen window, this is the only light into our kitchen. So therefore we are against it gong ahead. We have no objection to the single story conservatory.
