Re: sycamore tree

[redacted] 18 June 2016 at 15:10
To: Planning - <planning@adur-worthing.gov.uk>

I think you have made another error as I live in Windlesham Gardens and the tree is definitely a sycamore tree. Order number 13.53/1/94/(SU)

Regards Barbara Brooker

On 16 June 2016 at 11:29, Planning - <planning@adur-worthing.gov.uk> wrote:

> Dear Barbara
>
> Thank you for your comments. I have checked with our Tree Officer and his has realised that there has been an error made and the tree is actually the Ash Tree.
>
> I have attached the location plan showing the location of the tree.
>
> Kind regards
>
> Planning | Adur & Worthing Councils
> 01903 221065 | http://www.adur-worthing.gov.uk
>
> On 15 June 2016 at 09:07, [redacted] wrote:
>
> > I fully endorse the removal of the sycamore tree. The branches are constantly falling into my garden and as i have two small grand children I am worried that one of them could easily be hurt. I also have problems in the autumn with the leaves in the garden. I have one of you garden bins which is filled at least ten to twenty times with all the leaves. As I am a senior citizen it makes life very difficult for me.
> >
> > Yours faithfully Barbara Brooker