Description of the Proposal

Please note in regard to:

- Fire Statements - From 1 August 2021, planning applications for buildings of over 18 metres (or 7 stories) tall containing more than one dwelling will require a 'Fire Statement' for the application to be considered valid. There are some exemptions. View government planning guidance on fire statements or access the fire statement template and guidance.
- Permission In Principle - If you are applying for Technical Details Consent on a site that has been granted Permission In Principle, please include the relevant details in the description below.
- Public Service Infrastructure - From 1 August 2021, applications for certain public service infrastructure developments will be eligible for faster determination timeframes. See help for further details or view government planning guidance on determination periods.

Details of the pre-application advice received

Internal works
Any internal works are not considered development as set out in the definition of development in section 55 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.

PV Panels and Solar Thermal Panels
Part 14, Class J of the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (England) Order 2015, allows for PV panels to not require a full planning application, however it has to be determined under a prior approval which is a shorter application process, which requires the submission of the following information;

a) a written description of the proposed development;
b) a plan indicating the site and showing the proposed development;
c) the developer's contact address; and
d) the developer's email address if the developer is content to receive communications electronically; together with any fee required to be paid.

Heat pump and other small ancillary works
The proposed heat pumps could fall within Part 12 of the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (England) Order 2015, if they fall within 200m3 and below 4m in height.

Replacement Windows & Doors
The need for planning permission is decided on whether the proposed works can be considered development as per section 55 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.

Please can more information be provided including

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:
(a) a member of staff
(b) an elected member
(c) related to a member of staff
(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

- [x] Yes
- [ ] No

If yes, please provide details of their name, role, and how they are related:
