Dear Sirs

I wish to hereby make a very strong objection to the above planning application on the Goring Gap.

I and my family have lived on the seafront of Ferring for at least 66 years and feel after all the coastal build-up through these years - understandable for housing needs, that the more-or less last piece of beautiful green pastureland running through to the beach should be preserved at all costs. The above plans are not in any way suitable for such an area , enjoyed by many for its natural beauty, and perhaps the applicant should seek a more suitable built-up area for his money-making plans.

So many people here are appalled at these proposals and see that this piece of land is already marred by vehicles and billboards etc.

Please consider the simple enjoyment for so many people of the natural beauty of this last piece left of the Sussex coast.

Thank you.

Yours faithfully

J. Wright
