Comments:	The application is not at all in keeping with the location and I fail to see how it will be beneficial to tourism. Sandpits and tumbling mounds are already available opposite on the beach for instance and the road in front of the site is already quite busy during the summer months presenting a degree of danger to those crossing in particular children.

As for overnight parking, if for caravans or motorhomes, there would presumably have to be regulatory fire safety distances between those vehicles and with all the other "facilities" proposed, the site appears inadequate.

Kind regards
