Peter,

I have received from Michael the following comments from an architectural perspective.

The existing roofscape is not critical in the south facing roof scape of the rear of this property. The proposed seating balcony with the south facing glazed parapet will not detract from the roofscape of this building in this location. It is noted that the proposal would potentially have an overlooking affect on the property to the west of the proposal. In design terms the scheme is acceptable within this location in the conservation area.

Many Thanks

Jamie
