Subject: RE: AWDM/0167/18 - 49 Southwick St, Southwick - Archaeology

Flag Status: Flagged

Good morning Peter,

The proposed replacement garage and carport footprint is 50 metres away from the nearest proven buried remains of the Southwick Roman Villa (main villa building beneath Southwick Methodist Church and "Hadrian" on the corner of Manor Hall Road).

Given the expected very minimal new excavations likely to be involved in construction, and the distance from the known Roman building, the proposals are unlikely to have any significant archaeological impact.

Conclusion – No objection on archaeological grounds. Archaeological assessment/ mitigation measures are not required.
