Fig 1. Front elevation to 14 Heene Terrace, Worthing, BN11 3NR.

Nature of the Asset

The property is located on the third floor of a 5-storey block of flats on Heene Terrace, Worthing. The number of the property is 14.

The Works

The works comprise the following additional items undertaken during the course of the work outlined in the previous application:

1. Internal and external fire walls to the east and west elevations repaired, partially rebuilt, and provided with galvanised restraint straps to restrain protruding fire wall. Repointing undertaken using new lime mortar and external render provided to match existing. Internal finishes to be reinstated as per existing (lath and plaster).

2. West elevation fire wall provided with new prestressed concrete lintel to allow for rebuilding of low level brickwork.

3. Provision of replacement timbers to mansard wall as outlined in drawing 22035/005 with new softwood timbers.

4. Existing external box gutter replaced with new external box gutter and leadwork similar to Mayfair House. Mansard tiles removed and replaced with new slates to match existing.

Impact on the Asset

The alterations are focused on repairing the existing elements at third floor towards the south elevation of 14 Heene Terrace and to repair the existing windows as part of the work. The existing building forms a block of 5 flats.

The works stated above applies to the top flat. The additional work was at the front of the building, facing South.
