

PLANNING REFERENCE - AWDM/0733/25 –
CONDITION 07

The existing containers have concrete pads installed at the corners to take the weight and we propose a similar solution for the containers on their new site. There is inbuilt cross ventilation at ground level as shown by the gaps in the skirtings.

Existing container base detail.

Illustration of containers floor level with vented area below, which is above ground level.