- [x] Yes

If Yes, please describe:

There is an existing area of hard landscaping in front of the existing garage used as a parking space, however, this space does not meet the necessary size requirements, resulting in the owners car partially obstructing the pavement.The loss of this area of hard landscaping will not increase on street parking as their is a large shared ‘car park’ to the rear of the property which can be used by the applicants and their neighbours. The existing area of hard landscaping does not meet the Design Guide’s requirement of hardstanding of 6m in length in front of a garage so that cars waiting to enter will not obstruct the highway (pavement or road) and also to provide sufficient external space for cleaning and maintenance purposes.
