Dear Ms Barker, Ms Bourke

Please accept my sincere apologies for the fact that I incorrectly referred to the LPA as Arun District Council instead of Adur & Worthing Councils. Clearly this is most embarrassing, particularly in light of the Inspector's error.

I have amended the details in the email below accordingly.

Regards

Dear Ms Barker

Thank you for your email of 29 June to Sara Burke, case officer for this appeal, which has been forwarded to our team for me to reply.

On investigation of the point you raised, the Inspector quickly realised that, in paragraphs 7 & 9 of her Costs decision, she had inadvertently and entirely accidentally referred to Highways England, instead of Adur & Worthing Councils in her conclusions. Thank you for bringing this to our attention - please accept my unreserved and sincere apologies for this regrettable typographic error, on behalf of the Inspector.

Unfortunately, the terms of Section 59(4) of the 2004 Act preclude issuing Correction Notices where the error occurs in a decision relating to an application for Costs. We are therefore, regrettably, unable to issue a corrected Costs decision. In the absence of any power to correct the errors, I would ask that this email is retained alongside the council's copy of the Costs decision and published as such, so that anyone interested in this appeal is aware of this issue.

I have copied this email to Laura Bourke of Dowsett Mayhew Planning Partnership, for the appellant's information.

Yours sincerely

Ashley Gray

Dear Sara Burke,

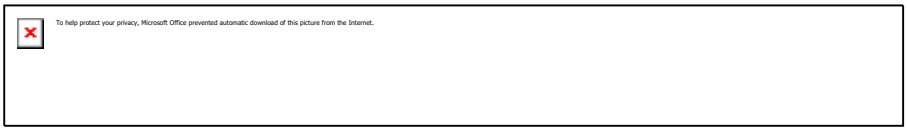

Please refer to the recently sent Cost Decision for the above application/appeal.

There appears to be references to Highway England which I think should state Adur and Worthing Councils? Please could you clarify and correct.

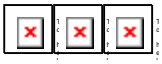

Thank you

Hannah Barker
