Reasons for comment:

Comments: I work in Lancing and I've been training with Mark for a year now, and it has transformed my life.

Having a quiet environment in which I receive one to one coaching has really benefited me and no doubt others that need more focused coaching that you simply cannot get a busy gym.

Knowing Mark personally I know that his driving interest is to improve other people's lives and this also extends to his friendly nature and consideration of others.

Ultimately, what Mark is doing is vital for the local community as it improves people's lives.

Also, I feel that having a healthy living centre would be a great use of the commercial space rather than having a fast food restaurant or convenience sweet/cigarette shop of which there are already plenty in Lancing.
